

Key Points

Know What:

- This week we are beginning a short series on Generosity and Stewardship.
- God is an incredibly generous God who loves us and always wants to provide the best for us. He has made us stewards of all that he has given us, to use wisely for ourselves and for others.
- Jesus and his friends were in the Temple and saw people going to give their offerings to God. Many of those who had lots of money went and gave in a loud and extravagant way so that people would notice them. One elderly widow came in quietly and offered 2 small coins to God.
- Jesus said that the widow gave more because whilst the financial value had been less, the cost to her was more.

So What:

- There is no formula for giving, no simple sum to show how much we should give. Instead we should examine our hearts to see if we, like God and like the widow, are being generous.

Now What:

- Let us thank God for his good gifts.
- Let us consider how we can reflect God's generosity in our own giving.

Our God is a Great Big God

Our God is a great big God

Our God is a great big God

Our God is a great big God

And he holds us in his hands

The background of the slide is a light gray color with a decorative pattern of teal and light blue triangles of various sizes scattered across it. The triangles are more densely packed at the bottom of the slide.

He's higher than a skyscraper
He's deeper than a submarine
He's wider than the universe
and beyond my wildest dreams

And he's known me and he's loved me
Since before the world began
How wonderful to be a part of God's amazing plan!

Our God is a great big God

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Amen.

Some of us like pink and some like blue

Some of us like reading books

Some of us like feeding ducks

That's because we're different,

me and you....
