

A stylized, low-poly landscape illustration. The foreground features rolling hills and mountains in various shades of teal and light blue. A bright white sun is positioned on the horizon, with several white rays extending upwards and outwards across the sky. The sky is a gradient of light blue and green, with some white rays also extending downwards towards the horizon. The overall style is clean and modern.

Luke 24

On the Road to Emmaus

¹³ Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. ¹⁵ As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; ¹⁶ but they were kept from recognizing him.

¹⁷ He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

They stood still, their faces downcast. ¹⁸ One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

¹⁹ "What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. ²⁰ The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; ²¹ but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. ²² In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning ²³ but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. ²⁴ Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus."

²⁵ He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" ²⁷ And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

²⁸ As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. ²⁹ But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

³⁰ When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. ³² They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

³³ They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together ³⁴ and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." ³⁵ Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognised by them when he broke the bread.

Key Points

Know What:

- Two days after Jesus died, two of his followers were walking the 7 mile journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus.
- Jesus joined them, but they thought he was a stranger. He asked what they were discussing.
- They were talking about recent events: Jesus had died, was said to be alive again and had appeared to Mary.
- The stranger (Jesus) explained from the Scriptures that the Messiah had to suffer and die.
- When they reached their home, the followers invited the stranger to eat with them. As the stranger broke bread they recognised that he was Jesus. Jesus then disappeared.

So What:

- Jesus made himself known to the two men. How do we recognise him today?

Now What:

- Let us meet Jesus as we read the Bible, pray, sing Christian songs and talk with other believers.

Our God is a Great Big God

Our God is a great big God

Our God is a great big God

Our God is a great big God

And he holds us in his hands

The background features a stylized sun rising over a range of mountains. The sun is a bright white circle at the bottom center, with several white rays extending upwards and outwards. The mountains are depicted in various shades of blue and teal, with some peaks reaching towards the top of the frame. The overall color palette is dominated by light blues and teals, creating a serene and bright atmosphere.

He's higher than a skyscraper
He's deeper than a submarine
He's wider than the universe
and beyond my wildest dreams

And he's known me and he's loved me
Since before the world began
How wonderful to be a part of God's amazing plan!

Our God is a great big God
Our God is a great big God
Our God is a great big God
And he holds us in his hands

He's higher than a skyscraper
He's deeper than a submarine
He's wider than the universe
and beyond my wildest dreams

And he's known me and he's loved me

Prayer

What can we pray for?

Ourselves
Our friends and family
Our community
Our world

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Amen.

Offering

Cornerstone

My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness

I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But wholly trust in Jesus' name

Christ alone; Cornerstone
Weak made strong;
In the Saviour's love
Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all

When darkness seems to hide His face
I rest on His unchanging grace
In every high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil
My anchor holds within the veil

Christ alone; Cornerstone
Weak made strong;
In the Saviour's love
Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all

When He shall come
with trumpet sound,
Oh, may I then in Him be found;
Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless I stand before the throne.

Christ alone; Cornerstone
Weak made strong;
In the Saviour's love
Through the storm, He is Lord
Lord of all

The Grace

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with us all,
for evermore.

Amen
